

MAY NEWSLETTER

CBA LOCAL GAMES AT CLUB – Effective beginning of May, all Monday games have been cancelled. New day/time is in effect – Wednesday mornings at 10:30. Hopefully, this will create more attendance at our in person games! Also, continuing are the Fridays -12:30 and Saturday -12:30 games.

APRIL SECTIONAL – The CBA Sectional was very successful! We were very happy to see so many “Old” and new faces and a great attendance from out-of-towners. Our chair-persons, Gainor Eisenlohr and Mark McBeth did an outstanding job of recruiting volunteers and working very hard both before and during the tournament. Also, Coleen McMahon and Katie Cox for handling Partnerships. We truly appreciate the following for their help in several different capacities: Eva Stokkebye, Rick Welc, Richard Moore, Barbara Devinney, Doris Klobuchar, Lauren Campbell, Elaine Camp, Merle & Joan Gaaskjolen, Craig & Cathy Miller, Joanna & Carmine Palermo, Suzanne Lowry, Pam Rosen, Jim Bender, Bonner Heath, Pam Barry, Susan Lohr, Chris & Mary O’Connor, Lisa Pharr, Dave Weber, John Amon, Len & Janet Case, Jack & Coleen McMahon. Our Guest Lecturers – Greg LeBlanc & Jerry Helms. AGAIN – Well run Tournament!! Please mark next Sectional on your calendars – Aug 4-7.

CONGRATULATIONS – NEW Plateaus –
CLUB MASTER – Margaret Schrimsher
BRONZE LIFE MASTER – Laura Gilchrist

(For the past 2 years, I have listed these new plateaus. If your name was listed, you were/are entitled to a club free play until you obtain Life Master. If you have not ever picked it up – check with director at the desk).

MEMBERSHIP NEWS – Chuck Krueger passed away in March. Funeral arrangements will be held at a later date. The Charlotte Bridge Club has placed the following book in its library in his memory: Counting at Bridge (the easy way to improve your game) – Dianne Aves. Also, Pat LaCroix passed away. Carmina Diaz has placed a book in her memory – Larry Teaches Defense – Larry Cohen

