

APRIL NEWSLETTER

Welcome Spring! Hopefully, our attendance will continue – as we had some great attendance at many of our games! The Hurricane Helene Fundraiser was very successful! We will have to wait a few days for the final tallies – but the attendance was great – 31.5 tables! Thank you to Kate Hill and the many members who helped in several capacities!! And to all who played/and or donated in several ways.

CONGRATULATIONS – New Plateaus

Junior Masters – Susannah Beach, Liz Lewis, Tamara McFalls, Anne Tonissen, Jessica Woodruff

Sectional Masters – Kimberly Bassett, Lisa Bobbitt, Jennifer Holshouser, Alan Michael, Stephen Nader, Bill Sturges

Regional Masters – Shannon Brown, Toni Calamari

NABC Master – Catherine Cotsakis

LIFE MASTER – Arvil Price

Bronze Life Masters – Arvil Price, Fern Shierson

Silver Life Masters – Paul Heise, Molly McGill

Ruby Life Masters – Gainor Eisenlohr, Marta Heise

MEMBERSHIP NEWS – We lost several members this month. Long time players – Marianne Walcott, Constance Thompson, and Jane Felton. Until covid arrived – these players attended “many” games! Also, we say good-bye to Jean Batten; Mary Cook Mills and Jay Connors (husband to Shay Connors).

LIBRARY NEWS – The Charlotte Bridge Club placed the following books in memory of: Marianne Walcott – When to Bid NoTrump by Adam Parrish; Connie Thompson – Swing Deals by Rakesh Kumar; Jane Felton – The Principles of Card Play by Paul Marston.

Ted Jarrell also placed the following: In memory of Jane Felton – Defense On the Other Hand by Bird & Cohen and Method Bridge by Matt Granovetter.

Good luck to our players who will be heading to West Columbia this coming week to play in the District 7 GNT Finals Team events!

SAVE THE DATES –

May 1-4, 2025 – Charlotte Sectional – Silver Points

